#imin The professional body for the global hospitality industry

Supporting the global Hospitality Industry for 85 years

As the professional body for the hospitality industry, the IoH has been delivering lifelong learning and Continuing Professional Development for 85 years.

Through commitment, dedication and passion, the Institute aims to help hospitality professionals, at all levels to learn, grow, inspire, be informed, and stay connected, to its hospitality family.

My university lecturer introduced me to the IoH. I wanted to be surrounded by quality contacts and I fell in love with the passion the IoH has towards lifelong learning and Continuing Professional Development (CPD). I've been a member for two years and it is extremely rewarding personally and professionally.
Diana M Codin AIH - Events Project Specialist EMEA, Cisco

Through thick and thin, through sorrow and joy, the IoH stands firm by your side with the weakest or the strongest and lends a shoulder to lean on. Our industry is the best in the world and the IoH is part of that.
Cyrus Todiwala OBE DL FIH - Celebrity Chef

The opportunity to network is invaluable to me. Meeting new peers, making connections, and building relationships all help me when I'm looking for new opportunities. I know the people I meet through the IoH have all the same interests as me, so the connections I make are so important.
Hermonie Chow MIH - Hotel Sales & Marketing, Hong Kong Wing On Travel Service Ltd

The IoH has been revitalised and displays lots of energy. It is an essential part of the industry and is important in developing young people and attracting them into choosing hospitality as a career.
Harry Murray MBE FIH MI - HOSPA President

I joined at University under the IoH Educational Membership Scheme (EMS). My Uni was a member so I could become a member for free! Being part of the IoH is fantastic. I thrive on networking with fellow professionals and being part of the IoH hospitality industry family.
